Please Note: The Buckley Park College SEAL program is committed to offering a challenging enriched curriculum to the selected students. Demand for places in the program is very high and we are committed to working with and supporting your child through to the completion of VCE. With each application we ask for a commitment from each child's family that, if selected into the program, the intention is to complete their secondary education (Yrs. 7 -12) as part of the Buckley Park College community. Please sign below to offer this commitment.
